

Sing from the heart (and the diaphragm!) singing holiday in the beautiful South of France

23rd - 30th June 2012

Come and join us at the beautiful and tranquil setting of Etres aux Anges – a lovingly restored 14th century château set in 25 acres of gardens, woodland and meadows. The venue is located 2 kilometres from the medieval town of Duras with its restaurants, bars, market and grand château. The venue is also only 35 minutes from Bergerac and 75 minutes from Bordeaux both which of which have excellent UK and international transport links.

The week involves daily group singing workshops led by singing teacher Peter Evans, focusing on vocal technique and the songs we will be singing as a group at the end of week performance night. This is to an invited and very friendly audience made up of locals and friends of the venue owners. There is also an opportunity to have an individual lesson during this week, and to perform a solo song in the final performance if you choose to. Song suggestions are welcomed and encouraged from the group. Previous years have included arrangements of songs by The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, Gnarnls Barkley, Guns and Roses, Stevie Wonder, Crowded House, Simon and Garfunkel and Take That to name but a few!

After the daily singing workshops you will have the day to spend as you choose. Either relaxing by the pool, exploring the local town and surrounding areas, just doing nothing, or of course practising your vocal exercises! Past excursions have included wine tasting and trips to the local vineyards, visits to the bustling local markets and evening meals out.

The cost of the week is £350 which includes all tuition, bed and breakfast en-suite accommodation, evening meal and drinks on the first evening. The rest of the week is self-catered and there is an excellent choice of local shops and restaurants in the nearby town of Duras. There will also be at least 1 or 2 group barbecues organised in the lovely grounds of the venue. Please note travel costs are not included but transfers can be arranged from local airports/train stations. There is further extensive travel and venue information on www.etrésauxanges.com.

For further information and to book your place please contact Peter on 07951 547077, p.evans567@ntlworld.com or via www.singfromtheheart.net